LIFE IN LONDON.

Rooms in the Seven Dials—Rebels on the Banjo—A Fight with the Police.

She was tall, slender and pretty. She gazed at him, looking him over from head to foot. His left arm supported her. "Ain't she a brazen-faced lass!" said a woman in the crowd. "I never saw a spunkier-looking company with those 'em haughty eyes!"

This remark was lost on the lass, who still continued to stare at her companion with a mixture of admiration, scrutiny, and anguish. He was speaking to her.

"I'll blow your brains out," he exclaimed in a hoarse, gruff voice. Then came then a bark. The crowd laughed.

The squaking voice, the unbroken strum and the bark had come from a company of apes, trained and justly which had anchored between The Grapes and Crown, two popular saloons occupying one of the broad sides of the Seven Dials.

It was on Saturday evening, the place swarming with people. Respectable, working-class, middle-class, ruffians, steady women, ribald humorists, inebriated gamblers and blue-ribbon regulars, elaborated every shade of society. The carnival was a show of the most melancholy aspects of the lowest orders, of their good qualities, and of their unboundless depravity.

News-Argus Clubbing List for 1884!

We have been enabled to make very favorable clubbing arrangements for 1884 with a view to the promotion of our cause and other papers, purely in the interest of our subscribers, and can now offer the following inducements:

The News-Argus and the Rural Courier together for $1.35. See advertisement elsewhere.

The News-Argus and the American Farmer together for $1.35.

The News-Argus and the Well Settled Farmer published at Fort Wayne, Ind., at $1 per year. Will be sent to our subscribers for $1.35. This is the lower offer.

The News-Argus and Orvis' Canadian newspaper together for $1.35.

The News-Argus and the Weekly Globe together for $1.35.

The News-Argus and the Montreal Weekly Witness together for $1.85.

HOME MATTERS.

REMOVING NOTICE.

From this date onward the News-Argus will be published from its original stand from which it was so unmercifully driven on the 14th of June last. In our renewed quarters we will be better able to meet the demands of business, and expect to be in a position to give better satisfaction to all who may have advertising or printing to do. Remember the stand—North street, first door north of Parker & Butler's drug store.

School opens on Monday.

Mr. R. G. Smith starts for Albert college this evening.

Rev. Mr. Gray has been visiting his parents at Kingston.

Mr. J. C. Pickering, of Picton, is visiting his friends in Stirling.

The teachers are arriving, preparatory to entering upon their work.

Mr. Chan, Conroy of Belleville, has been holding in Stirling.

Mr. Blasenbach returns to Dundas to-morrow. We wish him bon voyage.

Mr. W. C. Stratton, teacher at Napanee Mills, spent New Year's day in Stirling.

A fresh class for old boy bare may for sale. Write every particular. Apply to Rev. F. H. Stratton.

Mr. Walker, of Albert college, and his sister have been spending vacation at their uncle, Rev. E. Walker's.

Mrs. Ethelreda Conley, of Deseronto, has been visiting friends in Stirling for a couple of weeks back.

After all dame gams say about the Stirling belle painting, one at least declares she is belied, for she never does.

It was very naughty for Arthur to say anything about the young man who was around his girl. Children sometimes go home to roost.

The poor presents to Rev. Mr. Stratton have had a good effect, as he has so far recovered as to be able to resume public labours here next Sabbath.

Boys and girls are in search of excuse to cover the schoolroom, but abundant opportunity is given them. Now, if you'll all go, we'll all go. How long it will last.

Stirling Court, No. 120, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, meets the third Monday evening of each month, at 8 o'clock, in the Orange Hall, R. L. LETCH, Sec.

Miss Clara Martin, Mrs. T. R. Carnovsky, and her sister, Miss Ida Stratton, return to Alexandria college this week. They have thus great success, and plenty of hard study.

The villagers had a big tug to fill the school board. Wonder if the successful ones will be the result of the school-room in 1884, and force attendance of the pupils, if need be?

The final meeting of the members of the Stirling reading association will be held in the hall over Captain's store, on Tuesday next, in the Orange Hall. Meeting of officers will then take place, and other important business, and a full attendance is requested.

The ladies of St. John's church had a parlor concert at a parlance on Wednesday evening, which passed off very pleasantly.

The next regular meeting of the Stirling division of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held on Wednesday next, in the Orange Hall. Meeting of officers will then take place, and other important business, and a full attendance is requested.

TO OUR FRIENDS.

We have to remind our numerous subscribers that the first of January has again passed, and subscriptions are once more due. As it is only seven months since the dues were last in Stirling, The News-Aurora having passed through the flames with the rest, payment on new plant, etc., are now falling due thick and fast, and it should be unnecessary to state that money is needed to meet them. It will oblige if friends will kindly bear in mind, and renew promptly. Those who are long in arrears should note, require to be reminded again.

HOME MATTERS.

Attention is drawn to the movements of the Queen City Oil Co., who are leaving oil dealers.

Mr. McLean's has started a bookbinding factory in the shop vacated by Mr. T. H. McKee.

Last Sunday night the thermometer at Sterling stood at degree zero north. It was so cold that "ships" as follows were taken and cars testified.

Mr. John Kee has sold out his business to Mr. D. W. White, who has taken charge and advertises elsewhere some striking improvements. We wish her every success.

On Tuesday last a freight train passing down the Grand had considerable difficulty. Just above Shirling, one of the empties became stuck, and it finally got past the village, but had to turn two or three times.

Mr. Gee Hubble has placed his place on Front street to Mr. J. W. McVernon for the last month in the 9th block. Sister Mr. Hubble will not occupy the farm himself, but moved into his new house on the Franklin.

Attention is directed to two oyster suppliers advertised elsewhere, one at Springbrook, for the price paid of the public school, and the other at the annual auction of the Hawken agricultural society. Each is for a worthy purpose, and should be patronized.

Yesterday about noon, a cow belonging to Mrs. Weston, while crossing the railway back of her place, got stuck in the snow, with a portion of her quarters across the rail. A freight train, which had stopped, unhooked, unhooked the engine, and the train went up and released her.

The following are the newly elected officers for next year: No. 229, L. O. Parker, P. G. F. Butler, N. C. G. A. G. G. E. F. Parker, Treasurer, L. Melvillejohn, Rec. Secy., T. Sims, Fwd. Secy.

I am pleased to inform the public generally that I have purchased the stock of groceries, crockery and glassware from Jas. McLean, and examine our stock before purchasing any articles, we can get cheap for cash. If you want bargains in crockery and glassware, this is your chance; so I intend running out of stock.

J. W. White,
Successor to Jas. McLean,
Stirling, Jan. 16th, 1864.

Try the Springs & Harness Shop for a good solid Harness. It is not the size to go up harness that will cost the fewest dollars, but to turn out work that will last the longest, and give the greatest satisfaction for the money. Therefore no cheap stock is used or cheap workmen employed, but everything is done by hand, and built for service. Buggy and Dogcart, and carriages, cushions for sale and made to order.

Ed. Campbell,
Spring & Harness Room, 2nd floor, 10th Street, Stirling.

Some in a stirring room; others gay, and some die, their victim, than "Sag." But, if you have a quarter in your pocket, let me see it, and I will show you a trick," Victim said, and then added, "I am not afraid when says: "Come, boys, let's have a drink." Crowd drinks. Drunks paid for with quarts of beer after which wag again true to victim, and again says: "Wasn't that a pretty good trick?" Victim fails to notice.

An exchange sensible says: "If you have facts of a local item, always report it to the editor. Don't wait till the paper is published, and then express surprise that the item did not appear." The editor will be every place fat the same time, and may gather a great deal of news from others. Let us all be anxious to furnish news to the paper whenever we can, and do not wait for others to report what they know. The interest of the paper can thus be sustained, and the interest of the paper greatly increased.

The following are the officers elect for Grant's Annual Interdenominational Order Forsters for the next year:

T. G. Clark, D. C. H. D. R. H. Godden, C. R. J. Williams, Vice Pres.

R. J. M. Gray, P. C. P. C. Rev. W. B. Stratton, Chap.

Rev. Mr. G. W. Ross, Secy., P. Gilbert, Fin. Secy., Jas. Milne, Treas. Secy., Mr. D. W. White, Chas. Axar, Rec. Secy., W. F. Vandervoort, Jr. Wd.

J. E. Winton, J. R. Bla.

The court commences the year with good prospect, and constitution is subject to inspection, and all applications will be thoroughly considered.

The editor of the Americans Farmer describes a telephone, wire 200 yards long, that he has got at a cost of 45 cents. All that is required is to select your boxes and make a box about the size of a diameter in the center of the bottom of the box, and then put in each of the boxes you wish to connect, the wire, and it is easy to use. It is now being found that the city will be soon found to be connected with the country, and the telephone wires will be quite generally connected by telephone, and the telephone companies of its use in this way would be many, as any will admit on reflection.

A few weeks since we published the arrival of a new edition of the Montreal Witness from the Montreal Witness office. The day before the arrival of the new paper, the editor of the Montreal Witness came to us, and when our local paper about satisfies intelligently readers. Once some alarm was felt in our village, and the editor of the Montreal Witness was held in some apprehension of the effects of the weekly edition of the Montreal Witness. Now it is now being found that the city will be soon found to be connected with the country, and the telephone wires will be quite generally connected by telephone, and the telephone companies of its use in this way would be many, as any will admit on reflection.

SONG OF TEMPERANCE.

The Teaching Profession.

From the Toronto World.

At the regular meeting of Sterling division, No. 171, Sons of Temperance, held on Tuesday evening last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mr. Gray, P. C. P. C.; and D. G. W. P. Vice President, Mr. W. P. Johnson, Secretary, John H. Thompson, Recording Secretary, J. V. Blahey, Assistant Recording Secretary, K. Naylor, Treasurer, J. V. Hough, Chaplain, J. V. Hough, Chaplain, Miss M. Brydon, Assistant, John Ralph, Local Sentinel.

This organization has now existed in eight years.

It has been a success, and has been doing for nearly a year and a half, and has been a great benefit to the young person, young and old, to rekindle the spirit of the young, and when we say the word, we mean the word.

It is said, for it has been in a flourishing condition at any time during that period.

Some like to become members, most of whom have since dropped off, leaving a dozen or more, and those that remain are still members, some to the so-called learning profession, not one of which has any better title to such epithet than the teaching profession.

Those who are still "holding the fort," and intend to continue doing so, have given positive assurance of their continued support.

That is to say, those who have given positive assurance of co-operation if any temperance organization is formed.

That is to say, those who have given positive assurance of co-operation if any temperance organization is formed.

THE GREAT DR. DIO LEWIS.

THE OUTSPOKEN OPINION.

The very marked individualism of Dr. Dio Lewis, a man of intelligence and character and one who has won a wide reputation in the editorial columns of our best newspapers, stands forth in this portrait. This gentleman I knew, and reading over his words, I am sorry to say, I have done him disservice from its general tone the straight and narrow way. The verdict was prepared before the trial began, and the decision was made before the trial ended. The witness, however, did not have the benefit of Dr. Dio Lewis' cross-examination, and the witness' testimony of hundreds of interrogators and very many more, was not heard by me.

Mr. H. H. Warner has spoken

so well for Dr. Dio Lewis, and I have no desire to help to further humanity.

He is a man of great ability and intelligence, and I hope he will be successful.
